List: $2,500

Black painted iron chain link floor lamp with three horseshoe base, French circa 1950

height: 75 in. (191 cm.), diameter: 12 in. (30 cm.)

"Happy art thou, as if every day thou hadst picked up a horseshoe." [1. 'Taking with easy air the accustomed seat by the fireside:--

"Benedict Bellefontaine, thou hast ever thy jest and thy ballad!

Ever in cheerfullest mood art thou, when others are filled with Gloomy forebodings of ill, and see only ruin before them.

Happy art thou, as if every day thou hadst picked up a horseshoe."

Evangeline: A Tale of Acadie, 1847, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow (1807 - 1882)]

[2. An emblem revered across cultures, the horseshoe symbolizes protection, prosperity, and good fortune. Crafted from iron, it's believed to ward off evil spirits.

Its crescent shape echoes lunar deities, while its orientation—upwards or downwards—dictates the flow of luck. A symbol rich in history and spiritual significance, the horseshoe remains a beacon of optimism in today's world.
